

Major Accounts Dedicated SQL Programmer/Developer
70-90K

Job Description

This position reports up through the IT organization but will work primarily in an operational role as a dedicated technical and programming resource for an assigned major account.

Responsibilities

- work with account team and client to address and resolve client issues
 - work with account team to develop and produce client specific reports
 - work with account team and client to develop, create and update database applications using Microsoft SQL and Visual Basics
 - Work with account team and client to create, design, and build necessary components to facilitate the import and verification of data into company databases from outside vendors and clients.
- Coordinate with other IT resources to ensure solutions compatibility and consistency.
- Ensure that the performance, quality and reliability of our databases and data meet and exceed the expectations of the client and vendor partners.

Day to Day Activities

- Programming, developing, technical issue resolution 75%
- Technical account management 20%
- Coordinate with other IT resources 5%

Qualifications

- 3 to 5 years of experience working with relational database including design, development, and administration
- 3 to 5 years of SQL programming required
- Experience interacting directly with clients and customers is required.
- Experience with Visual Basic is required.
- Experience with MS SQL Server 2000, 2005 is required
- Additional experience with Java, XML, .NET, Crystal Reports, and Web development considered a plus.
- Excellent time Management skills.
- Ability to work in a complex, deadline oriented environment.
- Ability to work on a multiple projects at on time.
- Excellent written and verbal communications skills at the business and technical level.

<http://www.slc-staffing.com>