

- * Responsible for planning systems or software programming and analysis projects and preparing and implementing project plans.

- * Defines system or software requirements and priorities with end users and proposes solutions.

- * Develops and monitors software development standards.

- * Works with programmers to develop technical specs and documentation.

- * Ensures complete user training and software delivery.

Additional Responsibilities:

- * Support of and involvement in company, department, and/or safety policies, procedures, programs and activities.

- * Help the department maintain clean and orderly work environment.

Job Qualifications:

- * Degree in Computer Science with emphasis on Software Engineering, Masters preferred. Equivalent related field experience will be considered. Strong preference for manufacturing and/or distribution experience.

- * Must have eight years of experience in the computer industry.

- * The Project Manager will be required to propose new technology and monitor conformance to existing technology standards.

- * Experience in the current software platform, which is C# on Sybase and SQL Server with knowledge of WCF and/or WPF and LINQ.

- * Good verbal and written communication skills are necessary.

<http://www.slc-staffing.com>