

Alta Consulting Services is in need of an experienced Web Developer/Analyst that can complete a project in a short time frame. We are looking for one to two individuals with the following skills --

- Analysis skills including experience with taking user business requirements and translating those into technical design specs

(Heavy preference will be given to individuals with demonstrable skills in this area).

- Web Development skills including

- java experience including STRUTS and SPRING

- experience with HIBERNATE

- ability to mentor other developers with less experience

- be able to work with and assist graphic designers

- Experience with relational databases and SQL (preference with Oracle)

- Be able to start analysis work immediately

- Time period to be determined once requirements are complete (estimated at 16 - 32 wks)

<http://www.slc-staffing.com>