

AltaCS IT assists our national advisory practices in - planning, pursuing, delivering and managing large, complex full initiatives along with providing expertise in leading practices, methods, and resources in the space of Information Technology.

We have an opening for a Manager specializing in IT Strategy & Portfolio Rationalization

Responsibilities

- * Thought leadership in shaping the IT Strategy & Portfolio Rationalization practice and methodologies
- * Leading and providing guidance on all aspects of proposals, staffing, and managing IT Management & Governance programs / projects
- * Evaluating and creating business value chains in multiple industries
- * Working with and presenting to CXOs
- * Evaluating and aligning IT functions with the business
- * Identifying and prioritizing IT initiatives that meet the business strategy
- * Leading and providing guidance in IT planning & implementation
- * Rationalizing IT initiative portfolios with IT Strategies
- * Performing IT assessments and building improvement plans / portfolios along with being able to convince, guide and advise CXOs on moving forward
- * Aligning IT with business models across industry markets and leading IT process & organizational re-engineering programs or project streams
- * Leading diverse project teams including client, consulting, third party and across global regions
- * Defining / architecting IT services as it relates to business processes with an ability to relate IT services in business terms
- * Strong ability to advise, coach and teach with respect to leading practices and improvements initiatives
- * Build business cases and justify IT Strategy improvements
- * Practice building activities improving internal solution sets, methods and resources
- * Keeping on the leading edge of innovation and trends in IT management and operations, tools and techniques
- * Integrate with other organizations within ITEC to provide seamless solutions with respect to, but not limited to:
 - * IT Effectiveness
 - * Program Advisory Services
 - * Application Advisory Services
 - * Data Performance & Analytics (Information Management Advisory) Services
 - * Privacy & Security Services
 - * Business Continuity / Disaster Recovery Services

To qualify, candidates must have:

A bachelor's degree and approximately 5 years of related work experience; or a graduate degree and approximately 4 years of related work experience

* 8 years or more of industry/advisory experience

Preferred Bachelors - MIS, Engineering, Applied Science, Operations Management

Desired Masters - Business, Operations, or Science

Desirable Certifications in ITIL v3, CMMI, COBIT, etc

Required Attributes

Analytical and conceptual thinker with innovative capacity

Ability to handle complexity and ambiguity, and provide structure to complex problems

Professional services background preferred

Strong client interaction/communications skills

Other Key Characteristics

Strong understanding of business models, finances and operations and how technology can and does innovate the business providing them competitive advantages

Collaboration, Team Work, excellent presentation and communication (written, oral) skills

Integrity, maturity and dependability

Willingness to travel

Meeting facilitation skills

Demonstrated industry thought leadership is a plus

<http://www.slc-staffing.com>