

Desktop Security Engineer –

Qualifications

- Qualifications
 - Passionate and energetic
 - Strong technical aptitude, a quick learner and a strong troubleshooter
 - Ability to organize and prioritize work assignments
 - Excellent verbal, written and interpersonal skills
 - 8+ years experience in Information Technology with a high emphasis in security and desktop type solutions
 - 5+ years experience working with Microsoft Technologies including Windows XP\Vista, Firewall, Active Directory and Group Policies
 - Must have a solid understanding of desktop security practices: including but not limited to firewall, anti-virus, intrusion protection, and content filtering.
 - Must have sound understanding of networking principles including topologies, connectivity, client\server communications and authentication concepts.
 - Must be familiar with remote connectivity methods and possess the ability to design and troubleshoot remote solutions.
 - Bachelor's degree in Information Technology, Computer Science or equivalent experience