

The Web Developer is responsible for designing and implementing design layout and features to enrich the user experience. He/She must be able to work independently but also collaborate effectively with designers and other developers to complete projects in a timely manner. The position offers creativity, flexibility, room for upward mobility with the company. All employees participate in an equity position.

- Focus on usability and design layouts. Emphasis on cross-browser compatibility.
- Work with Senior Management team to help shape product vision.
- Provide practical support for other groups within the organization in the form of technical assistance and education for a designated technology, tool, or feature.

- * CSS, HTML, XHTML, and JavaScript (jquery, dojo, prototype a bonus)
- * Proven track record of delivering functional and maintenance releases.
- * Ability to create cross-browser compatible layouts ( including IE 6 ;)
- * Excellent organization, communication and interpersonal skills.

Experience with SVN, ZEND, XML, AJAX