Sourcing top talent-people who go on to become superstars in your organization-is not a matter of good luck. It's a matter of consistently applying an effective hiring process. Alta Consulting Services can help

Alta Consulting Services knows how to find top performers. Our consultants will attract and retain the most talented people who are the right fit as Individuals for your organization, not just the job.

Alta Consulting Services offers our clients:

Success.

A recruitment strategy that goes beyond traditional methods of recruitment

Accountability

A permanent staffing solution that operates as a value-added extension to your Human Resources Department

Experience.

Top performer profiling using advanced assessment methodologies

What is the Payoff?

Our full-service approach, extensive knowledge of the Utah's technology marketplace and experienced staff allows us to respond to your special needs and requirements promptly. The cost of a vacant position, a bad hire, or even a mediocre hire, is substantial. Just compare the value of your top performers to your lowest performers and you can see how quickly an investment in superior recruiting methods pays off. What managers need most is better talent and more time, and this is what AltaCS offers. We provide you with the best of class recruitment services that extend your own HR department and save you the cost of building up an overly expensive recruitment function.
